

ARMALITE AR-10T 308 WIN., $2124
GUN TESTS GRADE: B

Our gun shot relatively well, but its front-heavy design limited its mobility in the field. It was heaviest, both in terms of weight and price tag. There were niggling issues that knocked its score down: a dated design fiberglass fore end, and a scratched, slightly ill-fitted stock. Armalite's lifetime warranty regains some points however, and their new design seems to correct some of our concerns.

The supplied Plano gun case was something we would actually use to transport our rifle.

Our ArmaLite exhibited other quality issues with an out-of-alignment scratched hard plastic recoil pad.
