

FULTON ARMORY TITAN FAR-308 308 WIN., $2058
GUN TESTS GRADE: A-

The Titan handled everything we fed it in an easy-to-shoot package. The only gun in our test equipped with a compensator, its reduced recoil led to easier handling and faster follow-up shots. The FAR-308 also turned in the best accuracy, including our only sub-moa average. We can excuse a couple of misfeeds toward the end when the gun was getting dirty, but can't quite give it an 'A' as a result.

All of our testers liked the Fulton Armory Side Cocking Module in lieu of a standard charging handle. Despite the elimination of a brass deflector, no spent rounds found their way into contact with the shooter.

The FAR308 offered a soft rubber Ergo Grip rather than the hard plastic versions present on the other guns we tested.
